Best 2020 SWEEDEN Trainer

AFJA'AN 2012 AMER & NOREEN by DORMANE. Breeder AL SHAQAB RACING
Owner/Trainer M. HAGMAN-HERIKSSON Best SWEEDEN Arab Horse - 2020 - 10 RACES 1 WIN 6 PLACES

Maria HAGMAN-ERIKSSON is originally from SWEDEN, where she breeds and trains Arabian horses for endurance and flat racing. In a few years she has risen to the first rank of European trainers and owners by regularly participating in big events in UK, NETHERLANDS BELGIUM etc...

This young mother of a family, very early on devoted her life to horses since from the age of 6 his main occupation was horses. Later she worked in a nursing home for the sick elderly. In addition to training racehorses, MHE trains and rises in Endurance, an activity that occupies a large part of his life.

BRO PARK Race course near Stockholm

As a trainer she works her horses at the bro park training center

● Maria HAGMAN-ERIKSSON who has won many races in Sweden is very proud to have won two races on the same day on the national day and to have been invited to the JEWEL CROWN CUP in UAE.

● In previous years his statistics were very good in 2020, 10 wins, in 2019, 12 wins, in 2018, 17 wins and in 2017, 10 wins. With horses known all over the world such as: PAMILLS LIPSE, TOUTATIX, LAZOM AL KHALEDIAH, LETS DO IT & ROSLYN among others.

● In Sweden, where she exercises her talents as a trainer, Arabian horses only represent a tiny part of the Scandinavian races, but a real dynamism unites all the players in this sector. Likewise, as a great professional, she follows with interest the international actions which are carried out for the development of the Arab racing horse, and recognizes the merit of the sponsors who allow the realization of the biggest International events

● In the multitude of stallions present nowadays, her preferences go to AMER, TIWAIQ and MUNJIZ and finally if one day she had to leave Sweden she would like to train in France in the UAE or maybe even in the U.S.A.

THE AESTHETICISM OF A GREAT BREEDER

JACQUES CHALOM

DES CORDES

Text by: Guillaume de Cléry

Memories come and go, sometimes they come from afar, then there are memories that will never die. Nobody will ever forget Mr. Jacques Chalom des Cordes, a generous man with a deep understanding of Arabian horse breeding. In every decade throughout the centuries, irrespective of the country of origin, the Arabian horse and the related breeding activity have come across exceptional people very devoted to his cause, and who have marked the great history of this sector for almost half a century.

age thus, the static horse exhibited in his building, had to come alive. In 1965, he made contacts with a quite singular character who was worth to be known as he had lived in North Africa where he himself had been able to approach the pure-bred Arabian horses collected from the former Equestrian Establishments of the Protectorate.

For many years, mainly in the nineteenth century and until the middle of the twentieth century, pure-bred Arabian horses – also known and classified as “Oriental Horses” – had been a prerogative of the ari-

The Chaloms had their pediment on Place Vendôme in Paris right next to the most famous jewellers, they were one of the most illustrious families of antiques dealers of France, owners of a temple of objects of rare beauty, including many equestrian statues that adorned the entrance of this prestigious Art store. Jacques Chalom des Cordes had demonstrated particular interest in the living ‘things’ from a very young stocracy, the French Emperor, he first owned very nice specimens that inhabited the Stables that he built nearby Les Jardins des Tuileries in Paris. Given that he belonged to the extremely wealthy France, Jacques Chalom des Cordes did not find it hard to come across an icon of the industry, the heroic Count Stephan Zamoyski who had participated at the operations of saving Janow Podlaski’s Arabian horses during the World War II.

In 1967, Jacques Chalom des Cordes decided to build his own breeding program on the family estate in south France, at the foot of Mount Cordes, not far from Arles; the local climate was conducive to these enduring horses accustomed to the dry habitat of their country of origin. We need to know that the person being talked about donated an Arabian stallion "Coustignargue" to the State of Israel, who was later renamed to Chalom, an act of great generosity that he made for very personal reasons.

The Haras de la Montagne des Cordes eventually became a reality with highly selected specimen coming from the Polish National Studs which, at that time, had not yet entered the spiral of the market economy. Among them, one could find subjects from the finest and most ancient bloodlines; truly one needed a gold mine to acquire one or more reproducers. Jacques Chalom des Cordes's studies led him to establish a breeding program that aimed to the homogeneity of the products inside the genetic reservoir that he had available, and he managed to produce very correct horses, with a good back, a body structure in conformity with the breed standard, very good limbs, straight feet that are essential to support body mass, but also with a lot of Arabian type. The pure-bred Arabian horse, who dominates for his nobility, he argues, was not manufactured by the man, rather, it was domesticated by him, sometimes in a wrong way by intervening too much at the level of his use as a whole. He nostalgically remembers that at a time when he was trying to promote the Arabian horse and the exchange of knowledge and practices inside the sector, the horse
